ACTIVITY

You and your child can pass the time waiting at an appointment by taking turns pretending your keys are jingle bells as you sing this simple song called Jingle at the Window.

This game is ideal for situations when you have been placed in a room and are waiting, so you have privacy. Place your child in your lap facing you and gently pass your car keys back and forth. The person holding the keys when you sing the lyrics, "Jingle at the window, Tideo" gets to hold on to the keys and jingle them throughout the chorus. Repeat the passing game until your child wants to stop.

Passing a desirable object is a great skill for school readiness and an important building block for sharing.

Our music videos provide an opportunity for YOU to learn a new song so that you can sing it face-to-face with your child. Your child likes your voice best, so share your voice as you enjoy this song together.

Jingle at the Window

Making Your Cards Last:

To get started, simply print the cards, trim them, and cover them with packing tape to make them durable for little hands. Storing them in a small bag makes it easy to bring your "Bag of Songs" along in the car, your purse, or a diaper bag.

How They Benefit Your Child:

Boosts Early Literacy:

As your child chooses a card, they begin to connect a picture with a specific song. This is a foundational step in understanding that pictures have meaning, which is a crucial early literacy skill.

Fosters Predictability & Security:

This simple, shared routine of choosing and singing songs offers your child the predictability, structure, and connection they crave. These experiences help to soothe and regulate their feelings, making them feel safe and understood.

Provides a Great Diversion:

Your "Bag of Songs" is a perfect, on-the-go tool to help with tricky moments like car rides or waiting at the doctor's office.
